ROLTEK RECEIVES 2010 SMALL BUSINESS AWARD FOR THEIR WORK WITH CTA

March 25, 2011 - Roltek, a Woman Owned Small Business, has received the 2010 Small Business Subcontractor Award from ORNL for their outstanding support to the Center for Transportation Analysis. As the public interface for the FuelEconomy.Gov web site, Roltek's informative, accurate, and patient replies to the public's inquiries make the web site, which has more than 25 million visitors per year, a successful part of DOE's mission. The company also played a central role in developing complex Geographical Information Systems (GIS) on the RailReady and ORNLReady projects. Roltek was recognized by ORNL at an Awards Breakfast on Friday, March 25, 2011.
